DAILY GAZETTE.

A Spicy Letter from Cairo.

CAMP DEFIANCE, CAIRO, June 16.

The roof of the St. Charles Hotel affords a very fine view of the troops. The double ranks of compact, well-knit men, with shining muskets and bayonets, stretch off more than a mile, in long perspective. After various preliminary evolutions, at the word of command the lines suddenly break and wheel into column by companies, and the marching commences. You see two long, parallel columns of men moving in opposite directions, with an open space between, and you seek for a new simile to describe them. It is useless; as long as you watch their legs in motion you can liken them to nothing in the world but the shuttles in some great factory. The artillerists attract our special attention, by firing each of their six-pounders three times a minute. At a given signal they fire one of them, dismount it, deposite it upon the ground, remove the wheels from the carriage, so nothing is left standing, drop flat upon their own faces, then spring up and remount the gun for loading or removing—all in forty-five seconds. In an engagement, where the balls fly uncomfortably thick, you would no doubt recognize the utility of the feat. We are about three hundred yards from the guns, and at each firing, the column of smoke, white at first, but rapidly changing to blue, shoots out 25 or 30 feet from the muzzle before we hear the report.

We have a "contraband" negro engaged upon the fortifications. He arrived here in a skiff two or three evenings since, bearing unmistakable evidences of long travel. The cotton seed which he brought in his wool corroborates his statement that he came from Mississippi. He says that he is free, and no doubt he is, in fact, whatever he may be technically. He seems to be, just now, one of the happiest Africans on the North American continent. On the night of his arrival, I first saw him beside the guard house, surrounded by a party of soldiers. He answered my salutation with "good evenin', mass'r," removing his old wool hat from his grizzly head. He smiled all over his face and bowed all through his body, as he depressed his head, slightly lifting his left foot, with the gesture which only the unmistakable darkey can give.

"Well, uncle, have joined the army?"

"Yes, mass'r," with another African salute.

"Are you going to fight?"

"No, mass'r, I'se not a fightin' nigger; I'se a runnin' nigger!"

"Aint you afraid of starving, up here among the abolitionists?"

"Reckon not, mass'r, not much."

And Sambo gave a concluding bow, with indescribable drollery shining through his sooty face, which was besecked by two rows of glittering ivory, extending almost from ear to ear.

A number of secessionists captured by Capt. Hassfurther, in Mississippi county, Missouri, have become ardent for the Union since their arrival here. These sons of the cavaliers were a great deal soiled and crestfallen when brought into camp. As they were debarking from the ferry boat which brought them over from Bird's Point a Missouri Unionist, who had been threatened by some of them, and finally driven out, could not repress his pleasure at meeting them under such circumstances; he threw up his hat, clapped his hands, and asked them, with intense delight, how they liked the driving-out process. In the evening they underwent an examination before Gen. Prentiss. A good many rich scenes occurred.

One of the prisoners was a fine looking, rollicking Irishman, just from Mississippi, who really knows and cares nothing more about secession than he does about the differential calculus. He had been employed a day or two as a farm hand by one of the other prisoners, and thought it "a mighty hard case, yer honor," after leaving the south to avoid being forced into the rebel army, that he should fall into the hands of the soldiers here. Another was a harmless Missouri boy, who had been persuaded into joining the company, and who, when asked what its members proposed to do, replied that he didn't think they would hurt anybody. In fact, he was sure they would not if they were all like him, for he had intended, all along, to run if there was any fighting! Still another—an elderly man of very strong secession proclivities—was proved to have said that he would sooner die than to take the oath of allegiance to the Union—Upon hearing this, Gen. Prentiss coolly informed him that he would be allowed to have his choice.

The examination developed, in brief, that though strong pro-slavery men, the prisoners were nearly all honest, industrious citizens, who had been inflamed by reports that the United States troops were murdering women and children, and engaged in a crusade against all slave "property" and pro-slavery men. Gen. Prentiss talked to them "like a father." They finally professed themselves willing to return home, raise the stars and stripes, protect all Union men, and make war upon all traitors. All but three were released upon signing an agreement to this effect, either themselves or by proxy, for several were unable to write their own names. Two others, against whom the testimony was stronger, were set free upon taking the oath of allegiance.

The last and worst of them, the main fomenter of the trouble, was a Scotch schoolmaster named Macpherson, who refused to take the oath, and was told that he would be set to work shoveling gravel. He said that he would do no such thing, but in that he was mistaken, for yesterday morning he was set at work with his spade and wheelbarrow, and the industry he exhibited was a fair specimen of southern shovel-ry. Before evening he became exceedingly humble, respectful and loyal, and was extremely anxious to take the oath. Upon his emphatic promise of future loyalty it was administered to him, and he too was released; so the schoolmaster is once more abroad, and has probably learned one new and valuable lesson.

THE AFFAIRS OF STATE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial remarks:—

"The affairs of the state department under Mr. Seward are much more closely conducted than they ever were before. As an evidence of this I may mention that one thousand dollars was offered for a copy of a certain correspondence between this country and England, which did not bring it, while I am certain fifty dollars would have secured a copy of a similar document under the previous administration."

Lieut. Gov. Hoffman of Illinois is sick.

Mob in Milwaukee.

Special Despatch to the Daily Gazette.

MILWAUKEE, June 24.

A dreadful riot prevailing here. Mob breaking open Mitchell's and State Bank.

No military here except one or two companies. They will be called out.

Telegraph sent to the 4th Regiment at Racine for help. Mob have entered two banks above named, tearing everything to pieces.

Banks and bankers stoned. Probably many killed.

LATER STILL.—Fire at Mitchell's bank. Books and papers being burned by mob.

The Montgomery guards are now firing on the mob with good effect. W.

ADDITIONAL.

MIKWAUKEE, 11:31 A. M.

The mob have completely riddled Mitchell's Bank, destroying all the furniture and papers they could get hold of. The money and books are safe in the vault. Several clerks, with Mr. Mitchell himself, were inside, and one of them was taken out insensible.

The mob afterwards stoned the State Bank, Bank of Milwaukee, Martin's Broker's office, and have just commenced on the Juneau Bank. The damage as yet is not very large. The Montgomery Guard, Capt. O'Rourke, was called on by the mayor, but after arriving on the ground refused to act.

Zouaves are now loading with buckshot. We look for sad work. Will send full account by 3:15 p. m.

LATER.—Zouaves have muskets leveled waiting the word "fire." W.

2 O'CLOCK.

Military guarding Juneau Bank and the street. Several arrests have been made.

Mitchell's and State Bank are completely gutted. Particulars will be given in the regular report this P. M. W.

LATEST.

MILWAUKEE, June 24—2:30 P. M.

The military have got the better of the rioters, and cleared the streets, stationing guards at every corner, and a small squad at each bank.

No one is permitted to pass without an order from the officer in command. Arrests continually being made, and over fifty are now in custody.

We can learn, as yet, of none being killed. Some wounded, but their names are not known.

The banks are all closed.

The mob originated in the 6th and 9th wards among the Germans, and about 10 o'clock they marched, headed by a band of music, through East Water street, till they arrived at Mitchell's, when the work of destruction commenced.

The damage is not so bad as at first feared, the papers of value and the currency having been locked up in the vault.

The inside of the State Bank, Mitchell's, and J. B. Martin's office, were completely riddled and burnt.

Clerks in Mitchell's bank were badly bruised, but no lives lost, or any considered dangerously wounded.

J. B. Martin and officers and clerks of the State Bank, made their escape without injury.

The riot was caused by the banks throwing out more currency. There was a good deal of murmuring Saturday and Sunday, but the action this morning was unexpected.

BALLOON EXPERIMENT.—A Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal says experiments have been made by Prof. Lowe in the president's grounds with a large balloon. He ascended some six hundred feet, taking with him an instrument and wire.—While "up above" he telegraphed to those "down below" on terra firma. The object of the experiment was to test the value of his balloon to the army, for reconnoisance of the enemy. He designs "going up" and when high enough, remain stationary by means of lines attached to his aerial car and fastened to the ground. From this perch in mid-air, he can see all that is going on in the camps of the rebels. At the distance of several miles, by the aid of a powerful glass, he can number their tents, and thus accurately judge of the force there assembled. By the use of the telegraph he can transmit the result of his observations.—Availing himself of this information, the officer in command can make such disposition of his troops as will best frustrate the probable schemes of the enemy. The expense of such an agent will be considerable, but the value of it can better be judged after it has been fully tested.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE.—At the next meeting of the United States Senate, on the 4th of July, there will be forty-seven members, of whom thirty-two will be republican, and fifteen opposition of all shades. The eleven seceded states will be entirely unrepresented, with the exception of Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, who will disregard the unconstitutional ordinance of secession, of his state and take his seat.

J. Lothrop Motley, the eminent historian, who has just returned from England, and is now in Washington, represents the people of that country as entertaining the most friendly feelings for the United States, and as opposed to the hostile attitude taken by the ministry.

The State Loan.

The Milwaukee Sentinel of to-day says: "Some of the capitalists of this city and state officers have had a consultation here with reference to the state loan. We have learned none of the particulars of what was done. We learn, however, that the state has succeeded in raising $500,000, which is thought to be all that will be wanted, bonds being hypothecated at the rate of 75 cents on the dollar for the amount. The state is authorized, if she does not desire to take up the bonds at the figure at which they are hypothecated, to consider it a sale. Of course she will perfer to take them up.—This mode of effecting the loan corresponds with the suggestions we made a day or two since of what might be done under the law; and while it is legal, we doubt not it is as well for the state as she could have done in any circumstance. It is only necessary to take up her bonds, to get her loan at par, which no doubt she will do."

We are glad to learn that there has been no absolute sale of the bonds of the state at 75 cents on the dollar, as we at first understood. We can see no objection to the above arrangement, and believe it to be the best that could have been made. What effect the riot at Milwaukee and the excitement about the currency will have, remains to be seen.

The Supply of Cotton.

Malakoff, the Paris correspondent of the New York Times, says that a few weeks since during a running visit down to Havre to see friends off by the Fulton, we were struck by the immense amount of cotton everywhere to be seen. On the docks, in the warehouses, at all the stations as far along the road toward Paris and Rouen, were piled up and strewed about ragged bales of cotton—grown ragged by frequent and hurried handling. From this visible accumulation of the great staple one naturally draws the conclusion that the supply on hand in the French market must be very large, and perhaps sufficient for many months' consumption. Many of the American captains in the port of Havre, who are unable to get freight to the United States, are going into the trade between France and England. One captain said he was just going to Newcastle for coals.

It is also thought probable, in well-informed quarters, that Great Britain could get along very well till May next without a bale of the growing American crop, if long before that it shall not be in market, by the putting down of the rebellion.

There is more cotton in New York than in all the southern ports put together, while the demand for cotton in Liverpool to-day is less than it was a month ago. This is not what Davis & Co counted.

The consumers of cotton goods are everywhere economising in their use. Light woolen goods and cheap linens will take their place, in some degree, while the manufacturers are looking to other quarters of the globe for a supply of cotton in the future. These results were not anticipated by Davis & Co., and the power of king cotton will be found to be very much less than the rebels supposed.

COL. J. B. TURCHIN has been appointed colonel of the Chicago Zouave regiment. He is at present in the engineer department of the Illinois Central railroad, was educated in the military academy at St. Petersburg, in Russia, of which country he is a native, and has seen actual service having been a colonel during the Crimean war. He superintended the erection of the entire chain of fortifications of the Gulf of Finland, some years ago. He is about forty years of age, and came to this country in 1856.

☞ The news from western Virginia indicate lively times for the government troops. The rebels have taken post at Piedmont in convenient force, a place about twenty-five miles west of Cumberland, and by burning a bridge, cut off communiction between the Indiana Zouaves and the main body. We shall hear of fighting there or some more tall running.

THE FOURTH REGIMENT, encamped at Racine, is now full. H. C. Hobart commands a company from Calumet, among whom are a number of "pinery boys," and some of the descendants of the red men of the forest. This regiment is highly spoken of, generally, for sobriety and good conduct. The location of Camp Utley, a mile south of Racine, in close proximity to the lake, is a very healthy and pleasant one. This regiment will be provided with temporary clothing of homespun, and the regular uniform meet them on their way east, where the uniforms are manufactured.

THE WISCONSIN REGIMENTS.—The following telegraphic dispatches will explain themselves. We understand from the governor's dispatch that there will be no attempt at present, to form more than six regiments:

WASHINGTON, June 21, 1861.

Gov. Randall:—Oblige me with a statement of the number of regiments organized by you in your state, and mustered into service for the war and the number accepted by this department, not yet mustered, if any, and when these will be ready to muster.

(Signed)

SIMON CAMERON, Sec'y of War.

MADISON, June 21, 1861.

Secretary of War:—In accordance with dispatch reaching us on the 10th, accepting six regiments in all, if ready in three weeks, our first and second have left.—Capt. McIntyre is mustering the third, the fourth is in camp ready to be mustered, the fifth and sixth will be in camp as soon as he is ready to muster them. All will be ready to move in the time limited or a very few days thereafter.

(Signed) A. W. RANDALL.

☞ An injunction has been served upon the Common Council of Davenport, Iowa, restraining it from levying a tax to pay the interest and principal of the bonded debt of that city, amounting to $298,500. Also restraining it from paying in like manner either the interest or principal of the $150,000 city bonds given to aid in building the C. & R. I. R. R.; also from paying the $75,000 city bonds given to aid in the construction of the M. & R. R. The case is to have a hearing at the August term of the circuit court in Davenport.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, June 22.

Special to Post.—A messenger from Falls Church says there are now 20,000 rebel troops at Fairfax Court House.

A gentleman from Paris says he saw there a letter from Senator Mason, dated Feb. 20th, declaring that arrangements had been made to secure the passage of the secession ordinance in Virginia, and that Washington would be taken at an early day. Mason was then stiting in the senate.

From letters received in the war department there is reason to believe the rebels intended to attack Washington this morning, but for unknown reasons the plot failed to come to a head.

The captain of a steamer from below says there are further indications of the erection of rebel batteries at Mathias Point.

Lowe, the balloonist, is making an ascension from Arlington this p. m. to view the position of the rebels.

The 29th New York regiment has arrived.

NEW YORK, June 22.

Reports from Washington say the navy will be doubled in size as soon as possible. Secretary Welles will recommend heavy appropriations for building war vessels.

The President will call for at least 300,000 men in the aggregate and money to correspond.

Congress will at an early day suspend the writ of habeus corpus whenever there is an organized rebellion, and when in the judgment of the President it should be suspended, the suspension, of course, being temporary.

A gentleman who has recently returned from Richmond informs me that when he left there were only about 5000 rebel troops encamped there. Troops were arriving and going through to Manassas and Harper's Ferry at the rate of 1,500 or 2,000.

Jeff. Davis lived at the Spotwood house, Richmond, and the state department apartments are in the hotel.

Not more than one-third the usual tobacco crop has been planted this year.

There is no market for it, and the ground being more valuable for wheat and corn.—These crops look finely.

It is extremely difficult for strangers to get away from Richmond.

CHICAGO, June 22.

The Tribune has intelligence that Capt. Prince with 400 regulars went from Kansas City to Liberty, Mo., on Wednesday to disperse a company of 500 rebels under command of Brig. Gen. Marion.

On Tuesday, rebels hearing of the approach of Capt. Prince, broke up and scattered in every direction. Capt. Prince took possession of the town.

LOUISVILLE, June 22.

On and after Monday next, freight over the Nashville road will be refused unless permitted by the surveyor of the port.

The Journal says guns were stopped yesterday at Jeffersonville consigned to Louisville, until satisfactory assurances are received that they are for Union men.

Morning papers contain letters from Buckner to Magoffin, giving particulars of the agreement made with McClellan.

Kentucky authorities will protect United States property in that state and enforce the laws of the United States according to interpretations of U. S. courts, and enforce all obligations of neutrality against southern states. McCllellan agrees to respect the territory of Kentucky even though southern armies occupy it. In such case he will call on Kentucky authorities to remove southern forces. Should Kentucky fail to do this he claims the same right of occupation given to southern forces.

He will then call the aid of government troops; if successful in removing them, Gen. McClellan agrees to withdraw. If the administration adopts a different policy, Kentucky is to have timely notice, and if the administration changes the same, notice is to be given.

Gov. Harris gave assurances that the territory of Kentucky would be respected until occupied by federal troops, and gave peremptory orders to the Tennessee officers to this effect.

Owing to the excitement in Columbus, Ky., Gen. Buckner orders a detachment of the State Guard into camp there, for restraining the citizens of Kentucky from acts of lawless aggression.

Hon. S. W. Burnett, secessionist, is elected from the 1st district of Kentucky by a large majority.

NEW YORK, June 22.

The Manassas correspondent of the Charleston Mercury of the 18th, writes that the people about the rebel camp are hostile, and it is dangerous to leave the camp alone. Gentleman come daily into camp who fear their own slaves will murder them. The lower classes of whites are to such a degree hostile that civil war is on the point of inauguration.

Post's special—Good judges say there won't be any battle for weeks yet, and perhaps none this side of Richmond, excepting a skirmish or two.

Government will soon issue orders preventing the army and navy performing service as slave catchers, that business belonging to civil officers.

It is said that Secretary Chase will recommend Congress to impose a slight income tax.

Senator Johnson has arrived here. He was fired upon passing through Cumberland Gap, but is uninjured. He says the Union men of East Tennessee will imitate the action of Western Virginia, cut loose from rebel authorities and fight for the Union.

Gen. Scott has been asked by western men to order the retreat of Cadwallader across the Potomac. The old hero said, "it is right, all right. You will say so three months hence."

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Sunday, June 23.

The steamer J. C. Swon arrived here from the Missouri river, to-day, bringing Colonel Frank P. Blair and the wounded men of the battle of Boonville. The wounded are eight in number. One died last night, and one other probably die. The remainder, it is thought, will recover.

Col. Blair's account of the fight and foot race at Boonville agrees, substantially, with that already published. The rebels lost from seventy-five to two hundred men, killed and wounded. One hundred prisoners were taken and released on parole.

The fire was opened by the Union men and smartly returned by the rebels for about twenty minutes. The rebel artillery was silenced in ten minutes. After the firing ceased, the footrace began and was kept up for miles. The rebels threw down the fences as they went and made good time. The flight through Boonville is said to have been exceedingly ludicrous. The subsequent reception of the federal troops in that town was very enthusiastic.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 22.

Gentlemen from Sedalia, the present terminus of the Pacific railroad, and about twenty miles from Camp Cole, say that, in the fight at the latter place on the night of the 18th, between a considerable body of Union men and a number of state troops from Warsaw, twenty-three of the former were killed. The Union men were commanded by Capt. Cook, and were the force that was supplied with arms from St. Louis a short time since. Capt. Cook fled, but his men rallied and forced the assailants to retreat, with the loss of twenty-five killed—J. H. Leach, editor of the Warsaw Democrat, and three other prominent citizens of Warsaw, being among the number. Seventeen Union men who were killed were sleeping in a barn at the time of the attack.

It is thought that one or both of the Kansas regiments now stationed on the borders of that state, with Capt. Prince's regulars, at Kansas City, will come down the Missouri river in boats, and reach Lexington simultaneously with the forces under Gen. Lyon.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

The state department has received a dispatch stating that Beauregard has moved a large portion of his troops to Fairfax.

It seems that, by a line of communication open through Louisville, quantities of provisions are sent to the rebel states.

Beauregard recommends guerilla warfare.

In eastern Virginia batteries are planted at every available point between our lines and Manassas.

The rebels seem ignorant of the fact that when Gen. Scott orders an advance he can easily avoid Manassas.

Private letters received per steamer Africa say large numbers of privateers are fitting out in England for the rebels. It is reliably reported that several had already left, and are now on their way to this country.

Our minister's attention is directed to this.

General Jim Lane returns to Kansas in a few days. His brigade consists of five regiments of infantry, six companies of cavalry and six of artillery. The famous Montgomery will command a regiment. Lane has issued a proclamation, calling on the people of Kansas to rally under the flag, announcing his determination to aid the Unionists of Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas.

The reported movement of rebels towards our lines is confirmed. It is thought that the rebel commanders are obliged to do this in consequence of murmured dissatisfaction among their men.

CINCINNATI, June 22.

Both spans of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad bridge, across the Big Miami, near Lawrenceburg, were blown down by a tornado last evening. The bridge will be repaired at the earliest moment. Passengers change cars there for the present. The storm was severe in the city, blowing down trees and damaging the roofs of houses.

NEW YORK, June 22.

A special to the Commercial, Washington, 22d, says: "Senator Johnson, of Tennessee, paid a visit this morning to the leading officials, and was warmly received. The administration are highly pleased with the manly and vigorous attitude of Mr. Johnson."

NEW YORK, June 23.

The steamship Bremen arrived to-day from Southampton with dates to the 17th.

The British government has determined to send additional troops to Canada. It is thought desirable to be in a position to command respect from any irregular bodies which, in a moment of excitement, might assault them.

The Paris Moniteur publishes a statement that Napoleon intends to preserve the strictest neutrality in American affairs.

Ricasoli takes Cavour's position.

The Pope's health is re-established.

English and French embassies have been established at Pekin.

An English school is to be opened at Pekin.

LIVERPOOL.—Flour and wheat dull and declined. Corn steady.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, June 22.

The rumors of an impending advance of the rebel army en masse upon the federal forces on the Virginia side are received to-day and fly thick and fast to-night.

I visited Alexandria and Arlington Heights this afternoon, found the brigadier commanding without any positive information as to the reported movements.

It is, however, certain that Gen. Beauregard could at best advance with no more than thirty thousand men. None would withstand the deadly fire of the immense batteries now completed on the Virginia side of the Potomac.

Our troops are getting very tired of Gen. Scott's slow but sure strategy. They all fairly groan for an encounter with the rebels. It is to be hoped that their wishes will be gratified as soon as next week.

The oppressive heat continues. It would be hardly possible to make an advance with the corps d' armee, with the mercury at 102 degrees in the shade.

Shrewd military men predict that no stand will be made at Manassas or between here and there. It is certain that they now, since Harper's Ferry, have nothing to keep Manassas for. Their line of defence is on James river, with Richmond as its centre; and it is said that they must retire to it, without offering battle. As soon as Patterson appears with his troops coming down from the direction of Leesburgh, the rebels will see that they are out flanked, and will retire to Richmond where their communications will not be cut off. There may be fights between pickets and scouting parties; but no general engagement. T. L. C.

HAGERSTOWN, June 22.

An express arrived from Cumberland says there is no truth in the report that the Cumberland Home Guard, stationed at New Creek bridge, were all killed or wounded. There were in all 26, and all escaped.—They had two small iron cannon which they spiked and threw into the creek. Colonel Wallace is encamped near the place, and his elevated position commands the town. He has no present apprehension of an attack, and feels confident of his ability to defend his position. He has abundance of provisions and ammunition.

On Wednesday, after the burning of the railroad bridge by the rebels, the mountaineers collected to the number of 600 to 700, armed with shot guns and hunting rifles, to assist Col. Wallace to defend the position, under the apprehension of an attack by the enemy. They are ready to return at a moment's notice.

ST. LOUIS, June 23.

The steamer J. C. Swon arrived at the arsenal from Boonville to-day at 2 P. M., bringing 300 troops from Jefferson City, and the wounded from Boonville, 9 in number. One died on the way down.

Col. Blair arrived on the Swon, and will proceed to Washington to-morrow via Cincinnati.

He states that the number of state troops killed at Boonville was not less than forty, and he thinks their loss was much more.

About 5,000 United States troops are concentrated at Boonville, embracing Iowa troops, under Col. Bates, the Kansas forces, under Col. Spence, and Gen. Lyon's command of United States regulars and Missouri volunteers.

From the southwest we learn that Col. Sigel's regiment was within 3 days march of Springfield.

Col. Solomon was one day behind Col. Brown's regiment. He left Rolla this morning for the same destination, and Col. McNeil's regiment left here this morning for Rolla.

The latest heard from Gov. Jackson is that he was joined at Warsaw by the state troops that attacked Capt. Cook's command at Cole Camp, and rushed rapidly on southward.

A letter to the Democrat from southeast Missouri says Gen. Watkins is organizing troops in nearly all the counties in that portion of the state, to co-operate with the Arkansas forces now at Pocahontas, Ark., where large numbers of secessionists are already congregated. Arms are being taken up White river to them.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

In cabinet council it has been finally determined to recommend to congress at its forthcoming session in July, the making of a direct appeal to the people loyal to the government for the purpose of raising means to prosecute the war against the rebels. A loan according to this plan is proposed by calling for a subscription in every town and county throughout the loyal states, under the auspices of postmasters and federal officers, the amounts to range from $20 to $1,000, and small subscriptions to be encouraged and have the preference. For these subscriptions United States treasury certificates bearing 7 per cent. interest and running three years will be issued.

This morning Prof. Lowe, with his balloon, made an aerial reconnoisance of the enemy's position from the vicinity of Fall's church, near Fairfax. He was accompanied in the ascent by Capt. A. W. Whipple of corps of topographical engineers.

Commodore Stringham, commanding the blockading fleet, is here on leave of absence. He says all that is needed to drive the rebels from their defences on Sewall's Point will be a few rifled cannon on the Rip Raps—a fact fully established by the recent test trials of projectiles from that point.

A large increase of the navy will be recommended to the July Congress.

According to the statement in detail furnished by Secretary Cameron to the President, 235,000 volunteers have been mustered into the United States service since the first proclamation of the President.

Last night five additional regiments arrived here.

Nothing stormy has taken place on the Virginia side to day, but there are abundant reasons to believe that stirring events cannot long be withheld, indeed, must occur within the next six days.

ST. LOUIS, June 22.

Capt. Totten's command returned to Syracuse yesterday afternoon, having given up the pursuit of Jackson. At Florence, ten miles below, a half car load of powder was seized, and at Tipton about the same amount.

Franklin the engineer engaged in the burning of bridges was arrested at Tipton.

S. H. McCulloch, cousin of Ben., is also a prisoner.

The Republican learns that Gen. Price was at Lexington on Wednesday, sick.

The troops were flocking rapidly to the state standard. Gen. Raines had arrived in advance of some 1500 troops from the southwest. It is probable that 4,000 troops will be concentrated at Lexington before Gen. Lyon, who is understood to be waiting at Boonville for reinforcements, can reach there.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 troops were collected in Jackson county. Much disaffection existed among them, some objecting to serve out of the county, while others were anxious for a fight, and ready to go any where. Finally, over half their number threw down their arms and went home to attend to their farms. The balance proceeded to Lexington.

Gov. Jackson, with about 600 men, passed Camp Cole on the 20th, pushing southward, probably for Arkansas.

The state troops have evacuated Lexington, and are marching towards Arkansas, 5,000 strong. It is said that Gen. Price is at their head, but other reports say that he resigned previous to the battle at Boonville, and still others that he is very sick at Lexington.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 23.

Herald's dispatch.—To-morrow there will be an extraordinary meeting of the cabinet, when Gen. Scott and his staff and the various generals of regiments in and about Washington will be present. It is understood that Major Generals Butler, Banks and Dix have been summoned. Scott will submit his plan for prosecuting the war. That the rebels have changed theirs cannot be doubted, hence it is believed that Gen. Scott has some new project to submit at this council of war.

Our government has demanded of the Prussian minister that Treppenau consul at Charleston, who recently left Boston with with dispatches from Jeff Davis to his commissioners in Europe, shall be withdrawn. This demand will be complied with by that government.

It is stated that all dispatches to and from the south that go to Europe are sent through foreign legations. This matter will undoubtedly be inquired into.

Vanity Fair has a clever "take off" on the position assumed by England toward this country. A portly old gentleman, with a bald pate and rum blossomed nose, holds in one hand a pair of scales in which a bale of cotton is offset against a negro. With the other he claps a piece of gold over his eye. The scales are nearly balanced; still cotton slightly preponderates and the poor African threatens to kick the beam. One foot of the figure rests upon a big box labelled "Exeter Hall," the other upon a broken sword marked "Justice." There is a volume of quiet satire in the sketch.

Gov. Wise threatens to drive Gen. McClellan out of Virginia. He will have a nice time of it. We should like to see Wise in a battle. The governor who was frightened into fits by old John Brown, will throw double "flip-flops" when he comes to face a whole army of invaders who have dared to "polute the sacred soil of Virginia."—Room for Wise. If he don't make fun for the reading public, nobody can.—Albany Knickerbocker.

The real history of war is beginning to be written. A correspondent tells this incident of the Great Bethel fight. Orderly Sergeant Goodfellow, of Col. Allen's regiment, was mortally wounded in the breast. He handed his musket to a comrade, and several flocked around him. "Oh," said he, "I guess I've got to go," and placed his hands upon the wound. "Oh, don't mind me boys," he continued; "go on with the fight; don't stop for me! don't stop for me!" and pressing away those who attempted to support him, he sank down upon the ground. Just at that instant the colonel passed, and looking up to him he gasped, "Good bye, colonel!" and died. Col. Allen turned ghastly white, as he observed it. He bit his lips, too much moved to speak, and rushed on to avenge his death.

A FEMALE SECESSIONIST.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald writes:—

It is well known that a southern lady who has figured considerably in Washington society, especially the political wing of it, has the reputation of having entertained secession spies of late. Among those of her rebel guests named is ex-senator Wigfall, who, it is said, stopped several days, concealed. The government is paying some attention to this lady's levees, as they differ from those she formerly gave in this city.

Letters received in Boston from Mr. Marsh, American minister in Sardinia report that every indication of the attitude of the great powers toward the United States government was exceedingly favorable.

Increase of the Regular Army of the United States.

The war department, by a general order issued on the 18th inst., appoints the officers of the eleven new regiments added to the military establishment, to be organized in conformity with the president's proclamation of May 3, 1861. The officers rank from May 14, 1861. The following are the colonels of the different regiments:

Third Regiment of Cavalry—Colonel David Hunter, Illinois, late paymaster, with rank of captain.

Fifth Regiment of Artillery—Colonel Harvey Brown, of New Jersey.

Eleventh Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Erasmus D. Keyes, Maine, late major of 7th artillery.

Twelfth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel William B. Franklin, Pennsylvania, late captain of topographical engineers.

Thirteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel William T. Sherman, Ohio.

Fourteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Charles P. Stone, D. C.

Fifteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Fitz John Porter, District of Columbia, late brevet major and assistant adjutant general.

Sixteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Andrew Porter, Pennsylvania, late captain and brevet lieutenant colonel of mounted rifles.

Seventeenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Samuel P. Heintzleman, Pennsylvania, late major and brevet lieutenant colonel 12th infantry.

Eighteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Henry B. Carrington, Ohio.

Nineteenth Regiment of Infantry—Colonel Edward R. S. Canby, Indiana, late major and brevet lieutenant colonel 10th infantry.

The following order in relation to the officers recently appointed, commends itself to the public approbation:

The newly appointed officers will lose no time in making themselves thoroughly acquainted with the army regulations, the tactics of their several arms, and the various duties of their profession. None will be nominated for commissions to the senate who have not proved themselves, meantime, to be worthy and capable of commanding the brave men under them. That the department may be enabled to form a proper judgment on this delicate point, all commanding officers—those of regiments and battalions more particularly—will forward to this office, in time to reach it by the 15th of July next, a statement, on honor, of the moral, mental, and physical qualifications for the service of each one of the officers belonging to their command.

The sixth order directs as follows:

The recruiting for the new regiment will be commenced immediately, and be conducted under the superintendence of their colonels, in the states adjoining the head-quarters of each regiment. All officers will accordingly, by letter or in person, report forthwith for orders to their respective colonels.

The head-quarters of the different regiments are established at the following places, viz:

Of the 3d cavalry, at Pittsburg, Penn.

Of the 5th artillery, at Harrisburg, Penn.

Of the 11th infantry at Fort Independence, Boston harbor, Mass.

Of the 12th infantry, at Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, N. Y.

Of the 13th infantry, at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

Of the 14th infantry, at Fort Trumbull, Conn.

Of the 15th infantry at Wheeling, Virginia.

Of the 16th infantry, at Chicago, Illinois.

Of the 17th infantry, at Fort Adams, Newport, Rhode Island.

Of the 18th infantry, at Columbus, Ohio.

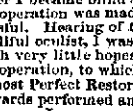

Of the 19th infantry, at Indianapolis, Indiana.

Estimates for blanks, and funds for the recruiting service of each regiment, will be at once prepared and forwarded to this office by the different colonels.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACT.—Considerable discussion among drovers prevailed about the government contract. It was said by some that Mr. Maher, of Chicago, still held the contract at $3.90 per cwt., live, delivered at Harrisburg, Pa., and $4.48 per cwt., live, delivered at Washington, D. C. The contractor, it was stated, had filed his sureties, and was to receive ten days' notice for the first demand from the government, and that notice not to be given before June 25. It was generally thought that the contract was too low to be of any profit to the contractor, and some were certain that the loss would be considerable. Various rumors are afloat with reference to this contract, but no reliable particulars can be secured from parties here.—World.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:
I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. Afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Banks Thrown Out.

The Milwaukee Sentinel of this morning publishes a card or notice from the banks of that city that the following banks will be received only as special deposites:

Bank of Columbus.
Bank of Green Bay.
Bank of Portage.
City Bank of Kenosha.
Dodge County Bank.
E. R. Hinckley & Co.'s Bank.
La Crosse County Bank.
Northern Bank.
Waupun Bank.
Wisconsin Pinery Bank.

There is much complaint among the holders of the bills of these banks, that after an agreement among the other banks of the state to receive them until the first of December next, they should now be thrown out; and it is charged that a large portion of the currency recently paid out by the banks are the very bills now discredited by them. In some instances it is said the identical bills paid out were refused on deposite a few hours afterwards.

We cannot regard the action of the banks in question other than as a breach of good faith with the public. Their action gave credit and circulation to the bills now thrown out, and as a consequence, thousands of dollars are now in the hands of men illy able to bear any loss upon them. Either the agreement should not have been made, or it should have been strictly fulfilled. The Milwaukee Sentinel well says: "There is no denying that the agreement to receive the notes of certain banks until December 1st was regarded by the public as covering all such contingencies as the suspending or failure of those banks, and there can be no better evidence that some, at least, of the banks so regarded the arrangement themselves, than the fact that they continued receiving the notes of all the banks in the current list for more than a week after the banks above enumerated had suspended."

What is to be the result of this movement no one can tell. None of the banks of this city, we understand, receive any of the above bills, and money matters generally have a blue aspect.

MINNESOTA REGIMENT.—The Minnesota regiment under command of Col. Gorman, arrived in this city yesterday. They were a fine looking body of men, and judging by appearances, Col. Gorman is every inch a soldier. The regiment left St. Paul in boats at the same time—one half of them leaving the river at Prairie du Chien, the other half at La Crosse. The detachment at Prairie du Chien left that point at 5 o'clock and ten minutes A. M., and arrived in this city at 11:30 A. M., L. B. Rock, conductor. We also noticed our old friend D. Olin on the train, exercising as usual a careful supervision over the road. We believe he is acting at present in the capacity of a superintendent of some part of the M. & M. railroad.

The detachment which left the river at La Crosse, for some reason unknown to us, did not reach here until 1:45 P. M.

There were 1060 men in the regiment, most of them lumbermen and trappers, and their destination Col. Gorman informed us was direct for Washington.

GOV. RANDALL AT MILTON.—Gov. Randall will address the literary societies connected with the Milton Academy, Monday afternoon, July 1st, at 3 o'clock, P. M. The friends of the institution are cordially invited to be present.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—The Hyatt House dinner table was set yesterday with new potatoes, string beans and new cabbage, in addition to the earlier vegetables of the season.

JANESVILLE CITY ZOUAVES.—We visited the drill room of the "Zouaves" last Friday evening, and were well repaid for the time devoted to that object. The "boys" have entered upon their task with the zeal characteristic of youth, and have made great proficiency in executing the evolutions and in acquiring a knowledge of the drill pertaining to their organisation. After a room drill, they proceeded to the court house green, where they "spread themselves" into the quicker movements which the contracted space of the room did not allow. Both the boys and their instructor, Col. White, seemed to enjoy it well, and they certainly entertained and pleased the spectators who were witnessing their movements.

ANOTHER BANK FAILURE.—We understand a private dispatch received in this city to-day says the Green Lake County Bank closed its doors to-day, and that great excitement prevails at Berlin among the depositors.

A JANESVILLE BOY PROMOTED.—Jutus A. Boies, whom many of our readers will remember as a clerk in the law office of Ely & Cowles, and a brother of E. E. Boies, now a resident of this city has been appointed a captain in the 13th regiment of U. S. infantry, regular army, commanded by Col. Sherman of Ohio. The rendezvous of this regiment is Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Young Boies had enlisted as a private in the New York 71st regiment, a three months' volunteer corps, and was transferred to the regular service.

The resignation of the officers of the Montgomery Guards, of this city, is accepted, and the company erased from the list.

Col. White's class will meet to night at the Hyatt House Hall. Every member of the class should be present, as important business will be brought before the class.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

The Light Guard.

This company left for camp Saturday evening, and notwithstanding the short notice of their departure, a very large number of our citizens attended them to the depot and bade them good-bye. Previous to leaving, the Guard marched through the principal streets, paying their parting respects to several friends who had, during their protracted stay in the city, given them evidences of good will and friendship. The Schuyler and Stevens Houses, where the company had been quartered, were cheered, and the Gazette office received a similar compliment.

The want of time to make the proper arrangements prevented some public ceremonies which had been designed. One of these ceremonies was the presentation of swords to the captain and the two lieutenants. The sword to Capt. Wheeler had been procured by a subscription among our citizens generally; that to Mr. Clum, the 1st lieutenant, by the county officers, and that to Mr. Mills by the builders and mechanics of the city. Each of these swords, while they conformed to the army regulations, were of superior finish, and were not only a useful but a valuable token of remembrance. These gifts were as worthily bestowed as they were freely tendered.

Conspicuous in the escort to the depot were the Home Guards, the Janesville Zouaves and Washington Engine company No. 3, each of whom assembled in large numbers on the very short notice given of the time of the departure of the company. A longer notice would have given more order and system to the farewell proceedings, but it could not have drawn out a better feeling or a more sincere tribute of respect. Throughout the whole time of their organization, and under every circumstance, the Guard have exhibited the characteristics of good citizenship as well as a faithful discharge of their military duties. Never, at any time, in becoming soldiers, have the members forgotten their former character as gentlemen and orderly, law-abiding citizens. They carry with them the respect of the community in which they are known, and the best wishes of their friends, from whom, we hope, they are only temporarily separated.

The Bank Riot at Milwaukee.

We exceedingly regret the occurrence of the riot at Milwaukee. We are in favor of law and order always, and learn with satisfaction that the outbreak has been put down. But we condemn the banks for the violation of an arrangement which they voluntarily entered into, and which they were in honor bound to carry out. They plighted their faith to the public to sustain a certain list of institutions till the 1st of December, and they have violated it. Henceforth there can be no confidence placed in them by the people of this state.

For the Daily Gazette.

Janesville Light Guard.

All hail to the noble men of this military corps! Janesville has reason to feel proud of this company which bears her name. A more orderly, gentlemanly, patriotic, and whole-souled body of men, will not be found in the whole state, and the people here have great confidence that they will never do any act that will reflect disgrace on their fair name. Being principally composed of our enterprising, industrious and honorable citizens, the heart-felt prayers and benedictions of those they have left behind go with them wherever they may be called to act and throughout every emergency. Such men never engaged in any but a holy cause, and when such a cause calls them to action, they must be victorious. Wo to the traitors who shall dare to stand before them in the battle field, when the strong arms of these brave men are raised to strike the coward hordes of the south to the earth never more to pollute the air of freedom with their poisonous breath. Wo to the miscreants who are trying to destroy that noble government which has nourished, fed, clothed and protected them like a kind mother, who are now determined to pierce her to the heart with their foul treason: wo, wo be to them, when they shall meet these, true, loving and faithful sons of that mother.

Who can doubt of the result of this great struggle when such men as compose this company leave their homes, their families, their friends and all that is dear, except their country, to fight for that country and the preservation of her liberties.

While the Light Guard has remained here preparing themselves for more active duties, they have been orderly, sober, attentive to their duties, gentlemanly in their bearing, and have received the highest praises from our citizens for their noble conduct. The officers are highly qualified for their respective positions, much respected and beloved by the members of the company, and are truly honorable men. The members will never hesitate to follow where such officers lead, and will never desert them in the hour of trial; the officers will always lead where duty calls. They have gone to more active scenes, and they take with them the kindest wishes of all; aye, and the tender hearts of some, as they know full well. May they triumph in this noble cause, and return with their banner crowned with the garlands of victory.

J. B. K.

BELOIT STAR RIFLES.—The Journal says: The Beloit Star Rifles were sworn into service last Saturday by Capt. Northrop, who was authorized by Col. Atwood to perform that office. This splendid company now numbers eighty-nine men. Many of them are from the lumbering regions, and all of them are robust, stalwart fellows, the very first order of soldiery. They are attached to the 6th regiment, and are in daily expectation of being called into camp. It is the intention of the officers to fill the company to the maximum number—101.

WISCONSIN INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND.—The annual concert and exhibition of this institution will be given at Lappin's Hall on Tuesday evensng, the 25th inst. Exercises to commence at 8 o'clock precisely. An admittance fee of ten cents will be charged for defraying the expenses. Tickets to be had at the office of the hall.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. Richards, a well known physician of Washington, procured a pass and went into Virginia to bring his son from school. He was arrested by the secessionists, and has been sent to Richmond, where he is still detained. His horse and corriage were returned to Washington, minus the doctor, very greatly to the distress of the family.

KILLED.—Wm. C. Spaulding, of Spring Green, Sauk county, was instantly killed on Monday morning, the 17th inst., while loading lumber on the Wisconsin river. An oar stem fell on his skull, crushing it terribly. The deceased was about 25 years old, unmarried, of good moral character, and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely end.

STILL IN ST. LOUIS.—The St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday says: "A report has been published in some of the city papers, that Gen. Harney is now in Washington City. This is a mistake; he is still in St. Louis."

WORTHY PROMOTIONS.—Lieut. Slemmer, late of Fort Pickens, and Capt. Doubleday, one of the Fort Sumter heroes, have been promoted to majors, and young Brownell, of the New York Fire Zouaves, who killed Ellsworth's murderer, has been appointed a lieutenant in the regular service.

During the late passage of the steamer City of Baltimore to New York from Liverpool, she passed about fifty large icebergs some of them more than three hundred and fifty feet in height.

The Indians in the neighborhood of Stein's peak, Arizona, led by a ferocious chief named Cachuse, have perpetrated horrible massacres and tortures on certain white travelers by the overland mail route. Two Americans were killed and seven are missing. The bodies of two were found pierced with arrows and lances, tied with their heads downwards to trees, and ashes of the fires underneath by which they had suffered martyrdom. A party of sixteen United States regulars and a lieutenant from Fort McLane acted as escort to an emigrant train, about the 8th of May, but could not find the savages.

The heavy gale which swept over Boston on Sunday was a regular tornado in the vicinity of Providence. It was accompanied by a great fall of hail, the storm being from five to ten miles in width, and doing much damage to buildings and crops.—Large quantities of glass were broken, and the loss of crops alone, in Rhode Island will reach many thousand dollars.

There are now in Philadelphia more than a thousand Union men who have fled from the south for their lives, and there are thousands of others who have sought refuge in the western states. All these men are witnesses to the utter barbarity and violence which mark the course of the rebel leaders and they earnestly call on the government to move vigorously for the hundreds of thousands of loyal citizens in the south who are compelled to silence, and many of them forced to serve in the rebel army.

The first new wheat of the season was received at Memphis the 14th. The price paid for it was $1,95 per bushel.

The day selected by the Old School Presbyterian assembly for prayers throughout its bounds, is the 1st of July, and not the 4th as stated.

The state authorities of Massachusetts have ordered four thousand Havelocks for the use of troops of that state.

The whole force in and around Washington at this time is 47,000, besides Patterson's division of 25,000 approaching from the north.

WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 67a70; fair to good dry shipping 60a65; stump tail 25a40.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

SUBJECTS OF PATENTS.

"INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberal in their protection, is only to be just towards the rights of property, and tends to increase the public wealth and hastens the progress of practical improvements and of science. * * * The settled doctrine of the courts, now, under the light of large experience, is, to incline to constructions most favorable to patents."—Extract from opinion of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

May's Patents.

Double and Single Acting Pumps.

☞ For any depth of mining shafts and wells, open or drilled, to 500 feet.

☞ No suction pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pumping rods.

☞ Are composed of two metalic cylinders and two brass valves, and wrought-iron conducting pipe.

☞ Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and by means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at whatever depth, and work without noise.

☞ They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!!

☞ Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess valuable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

"Blow winds and crack your cheeks! rage! blow!" —King Lear.

The winds are found to be the Cheapest Motor in existence and highly serviceable for many mechanical purposes, as pumping, sawing, turning, grinding, &c., &c.

☞ These ENGINES are perfectly self-regulating and under easy control, independent of their self-governing qualities.

☞ They are STRONG and DURABLE.

Address as above.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine.

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, last 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. — R. W. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 690 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

C. M. CLARK.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 126 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. — REEVES & WADDLE.

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

JOHN TRACY.

Center, Rock county, Wis., Feb. 27th, 1861.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. — A. HOSKINS.

Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.

WM. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 186 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the [illegible] and the power is communicated from the Engine t[illegible] well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.

J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. — Address as above.

☞ Also for sale, the Patents in the unsold territory for Badger's Portable Grist Mill, Gilmore & May's Rock Drill Stone Dressing Machine and Quartz Rock Crusher, and Nash & Cutts' Grain Separator. All late Patents, are meritorious and sell freely. — Address,

J. M. MAY, Agent, &c., as above.
